AIB North Wexford Business Award- Small Business 2016

Aztec Design

Aztec Design are a website design company founded in 2012 by James Osborne and based in Gorey Business Park. The company caters for clients from all business sectors and prides its-self on helping clients make the most of their website.

In an growing industry where many small business's are priced out of getting their business online or do not have the resources, time or skills to build their own website Aztec Design provide a valuable service that makes the process simple, fast and cost effective. We make us of all the latest trends and technologies and unlike many other web design company's we never outsource and we create our own designs rather then purchase templates and then customise to suit. The friendly team at Aztec Design also provide excellent advice and training on using the website after completion and are on standby to help out with any issues that might arise.

Have a look at the range of websites complete at www.aztecdesign.ie/clients and see for yourself how we have helped almost 150 business's showcase their company online - on time and on budget

Fifth Avenue part of House of S.O.S

Fifth Avenue was opened six years this summer and stocks the well-known brands Vero Moda, Only and Pieces. All three brands are for the fashion conscious lady with affordable price tags, suitable for every age, casual or dressy, Fifth Avenue has it covered.

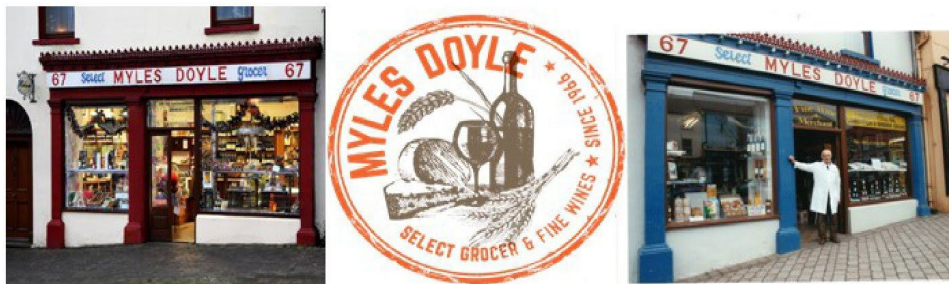

House of S.O.S is the collective name for three popular shops on Main Street, Gorey. It consists of Koolkidz, 34th and Fifth Avenue. All three shops are owned and run by Sinead O' Sullivan (hence the name!) Sinead has many years' experience in retail and fashion and her expertise and knowledge can be clearly seen from her three shops which she has passed on to all her helpful and friendly staff.

Gorey Print

Gorey Print is now serving Gorey for the past 25 years, doing a full range of printing from business cards to brochures. We now supply a full range of office supplies and t-shirt printing.

Myles Doyle Select Grocer

Mylie Doyle established his traditional grocery store in Gorey in February, 1966. Over the past 50 years the shop developed a reputation for welcoming, friendly service. We have now progressed into an Artisan Food Store and Myles Doyle Select Grocer and Fine Wines aim to sell quality goods from both local and Irish food producers. Myles Doyle Select Grocer and Fine Wines is located in a premises originally owned by the Kirwan family who ran a butcher's shop up to 1956. Mylie Doyle inherited the shop premises from his cousin, Alice Kirwan, and opened his grocery store in February, 1966, a business he was very familiar with having worked for many years in Graham's Pub & Grocery (now Bob's Bar), Main Street, Gorey.

Mylie's son, John, has been working in the grocery store since leaving school. Retirement was never an option for Mylie Doyle and he continued working until shortly before his death in January, 2014. John Doyle continues the grocery tradition of his father in a way that matches customers' expectations from a Select Grocery Store in 2016.

South East Financial Services

Southeast Financial Services are an independent Financial Broker offering advice, on Mortgages, Life and illness assurance, Income Protection, Pensions, Savings, Investments, Deposits, Health and Dental Insurance. All our advisers are fully qualified and experienced. Our office is on St. Michaels Road, but appointments are available at a time and place that suits you and are always at our expense. If you don't want the best available advice, that's your business. If you do, then that's our business.

The Photo Shop provides an eclectic mix of personalised products, gifts and accessories which has become very popular with our customers. But our main business is the printing, editing and framing of photographs. Specialising in the reconstruction and restoring of old prints to their original format.

Here at The Photo Shop we pride ourselves on our excellent customer service, which not only reaches but exceeds our customers expectations... it also helps to have the gift of the gab !!!

The other aspect of the business is the professional photography service by Mary Atkins Photography who offers a creative, stylish and un-intrusive photography service with a female flare for detail.
